Swintt celebrate Hero Gaming launch with exclusive

Swintt, the Malta-based game provider, are celebrating the recent launch of their games on Hero Gaming's brands with an exclusive game release, Egypt King.

Players across Hero Gaming brands such as CasinoHeroes and Boom Casino are able to play Swintt's portfolio of specialist games popular in Central European land-based markets, including Germany.

Swintt's next game release, Egypt King, is available exclusively to players on Hero Gaming brands until February 18th and was a smash-hit in the land-based sector due to its collection feature to trigger extra bonus rounds.

Aside from other land-based classics like Master of Books and Seven Seven, Hero Gaming players will be able to enjoy some of Swintt's own in-house games over the coming weeks including the evergreen Golden Buffalo and Wild 777.

David Mann, Chief Commercial Officer of Swintt said: "Having our games live with some of the most exciting brands in the industry is another highlight in an already tremendous year. I'm thrilled that to see our selection of games go live with Hero Gaming and give an extra special treat in the early release of Egypt King to their players."

Casino Manager at Hero Gaming, Sven De Waard, said: "We have been looking forward to seeing Swintt's games go-live for some time and we can see our players are very receptive to them. Ensuring our players have the best content to choose, especially relevant content they know and trust, is vital for us so partnering Swintt was the logical choice."
